

Wife Chases Hun From Home; Tries To BoBard With Judge

CRYSTAL SPRING, Miss., March 11 (Sp.)—Judge D. Slay tried an unusual case Monday afternoon. Tom Green had charged his wife, Martha, with assault and battery with intent to kill, the evidence developing that Martha had hammered Tom on the head with a convenient hatchet. It developed, however, that Tom started the row and had chased Martha around the house with a drawn pocket knife. Judge Slay dismissed the case and told Tom to go home and stay there. Tom went home but Tuesday morning early was back at Judge Slay's office bearing under his arm all of his clothing, bedding and the like which he politely dumped in the judge's office and stated that since he couldn't stay at home for fear of his wife he had decided to take up quarters in the judge's office. Officer Willard promptly advised the man that the judge was not running a rooming house and ordered him to leave.

DR. LOWREY MAKES S. S. APPOINTMENTS

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., March 11 (Sp.)—Dr. B. G. Lowrey, of Blue Mountain, Miss., who was recently chosen as president of the Mississippi Sunday School association to succeed Hon. J. R. Bryan, of Vicksburg, Miss., has just named the following as the committee on the children's division of the association: Rev. R. F. Lewis, Jackson, chairman; Mrs. R. M. H. West, Point; Miss Jennie Watts, Columbia; Miss Lucy Hall Pack, Hattiesburg; Mrs. Sue S. Brant, Jackson; Mrs. J. L. Bass, Hattiesburg; Mrs. James Galceran, Jackson.

J. J. LOWREY GOES TO MACON HIGH SCHOOL

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., March 11 (Sp.)—Prof. Joe Jarman Lowrey, of Blue Mountain, who is now superintendent of the Macon high school, has just been elected to the superintendent of the Merigold high school for the coming school year. This school which has an annual yield of revenues from school lands to the amount of $4,000 besides funds which are provided by the state, pays probably the highest salaries of any school in the state.

CARROLL COUNTY G. O. P. ORGANIZE

HUNTINGDON, Tenn., March 11 (Sp.)—The Republicans of Carroll county met in mass convention here yesterday and reorganized the county by selecting Joe T. Hester, chairman, and R. A. Green, secretary, and appointing a number of committeemen from the various parts of the county. Delegates were named to the congressional district convention at Jackson and the state convention at Chattanooga. No instructions were given the delegates, with the exception that J. Wesley Williams was endorsed as the choice of the county for congress. A resolution was passed complimentary to Gen. Wood as a man of national ability, but refrained from instructing the delegates as to presidential choice. C. W. Brant acted as chairman of the convention and R. A. Green as secretary. The convention was harmonious, but several hours had been spent previously getting an agreement among the factions so as to prevent friction.

WILL OPERATE ROCK CRUSHER IN ARKANSAS

BLACK ROCK, Ark., March 11 (Sp.)—There is to be a $100,000 rock crusher installed here within the next few months. The railroad company has a corps of surveyors here today surveying the switch track to reach the place where the crusher is to be installed. It will be at the same place that a rock crusher was operated 25 years ago.
